CR. NO. 2:07-CR-282-MEF

ORDER

In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing was convened on November 20, 2007. The indictment in this case establishes probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense for which the maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in 21 U.S.C. § 841(a)(1). At the hearing the defendant, after conferring with counsel and being advised of his right to a hearing, waived his right to a detention hearing and chose not to contest detention.

Therefore, it is ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

Done this 20th day of November, 2007.
